

ISN World Congress of Nephrology - 'Patient and Carer Forum'

Sunday April 14th 2019 – 2:30-5:30pm (VIC time)

Melbourne Convention Exhibition Centre (Room: 217) & via live-stream

Session 1. Co-chairs: Professor Stephen McDonald & Carolina Maistry

2:30 – 2:40

Welcome & Introduction

2:40 – 3:00

Exercise in ESKD: Moving Beyond the Status Quo

Dr Stephanie Thompson – University of Alberta, Canada, Northern Alberta Renal Program & The Global Research in Exercise Working Group (GREX)

3:00 – 3:20

Symptoms & Self-management in Kidney Disease

Dr Sara Davison – University of Alberta, Canada, Founder & Director Kidney Supportive Care Research Group

3:20 – 3:40

Dialysis-related Fatigue

Angela Ju – Centre for Kidney Research, SONG Initiative - patient perspectives on fatigue, measuring fatigue, possible interventions for fatigue, M-FIT study

3:45 – 4:15

Afternoon tea break

Session 2. Co-chairs: Associate Professor Shilpa Jesudason & Carolina Maistry

4:15 – 4:35

Consumer Involvement in Kidney Disease Research – What is it and how to do it well?

Kevin Settee and Craig Settee – Transplant recipient and donor, Can-SOLVE CKD network

4:35 – 5:00

The Carer's Perspective – Issues and priorities for patients and their families

Kylie Paulo – Member of the BEAT-CKD Consumer Advisory Board

5:00 – 5:25

Panel discussion – Improving Patient-provider Communications, Facilitator: Shilpa Jesudason

Kylie Paulo (Carer perspective)

Nicki Scholes-Robertson (Patient perspective)

Prof Matt Jose (Professor of Medicine, University of Tasmania, Consultant Nephrologist, Royal Hobart Hospital)

Jade Ryan (Dialysis co-ordinator, Kidney Care Service, Royal Melbourne Hospital)

5:25

Conclusion

*REGISTER NOW to join via free live-stream: <http://beatckd.org/events/>